

If the public airways are really the public's .Why aren't the views of the public involved in policy? As our commission you are answerable to the public not anyone else.